

The Faith Formation Committee announces.....

Parent Formation Classes

During Lent the Adult Faith Formation Committee surveyed the adults of the Parish to find out what areas of our Christian faith they would be interested in learning more about. The Faith Formation Committee studied the results and has taken action in order to meet the needs of the parents of all our children. The results are in, the meeting rooms have been updated, and a plan is in place....

all that is missing is you!

Taking into consideration your busy calendars the committee has scheduled 11 one-hour classes of Parent Faith Formation that will be held while your children are in Religious Ed. classes (you will be guaranteed to be out on time). The focus of all the classes will be:

What Does It Mean To Be Catholic...And Why Does It Matter?

Classes will be interactive, insightful, and hopefully bring us to a clearer understanding of what it means to be Catholic and how our faith is integrated into our daily lives.

Schedule
